

HEALTH SERVICES (539)

539-100. Intro Health Care Professions. (3 Credits)

This course is designed to introduce the student to a wide variety of health care professions, including the profession's main responsibilities and educational level. The student will also gain basic skills in critical thinking and patient interaction as it relates to health care professions. Study skills as they relate to health care students is also addressed in this course.

See sections of this course (<http://www.wctc.edu/academics/programs-courses/course-search/course-search-listing.php?code=539&num=100>)